

A Proper Cup of English Tea

British people LOVE their tea! They believe a cup of tea can cure anything. Having a bad day? Have some tea. Having a great day? Have some tea. Tired? Energetic? Have some tea! The British will have tea for any reason, any day of the week. It's a long-time tradition. Maybe that's why the British drink about 165 million cups of tea PER DAY!!! That's a LOT of tea!

Let's learn how to make a proper cup of tea!

- Have your fine china ready! (teapot, teacups and saucers, creamer, sugar bowl, and teaspoons)
- ♥ Bring a pot of water to a boil. (Be sure an adult is with you for this step – always be careful with hot water!)
- Add Mom's favorite tea to your teapot (English breakfast, Earl Grey, or Rhubarb and Custard are a few British favorites).
- Pour your hot water into the teapot (VERY carefully!) and let the tea steep (sit there) for at least 5 minutes.
- After the tea has steeped, add cream and sugar for the perfect "cuppa" tea (as the British would say).
- ▼ To give Mom a real British treat, serve her tea with scones and finger sandwiches (no, not sandwiches made out of fingers – just regular little sandwiches!

If you do all of this, your Mom will enjoy a British tea posh enough for the Queen herself.

Scones: the perfect tea partner!

If you want your Mum (that's British for Mom) to enjoy a real posh tea, you must give her scones! Scones are a sweet type of biscuit that are perfect with butter or any kind of jam. If you think the Brits love their tea, you can't imagine how much they love their scones! They've been around since the 1500's, and aren't going away any time soon!

Here's a recipe for scones (be sure to have an adult help you!)

- The ingredients!
  - ₱ 2 ¾ cups of flour
  - 1 tablespoon of baking soda
  - ♥ ½ teaspoon of salt
  - ¼ cup of cold butter
  - ♥ ½ cup of sugar
  - ½ cup of raisins or sultanas (British raisins) soaked in hot water for 10 minutes and then drained
  - 2 large eggs
  - Egg wash (another large egg mixed with a tablespoon of water)

The instructions!

In a medium bowl, mix the flour, baking soda, and salt together. Add the butter and work it into the mix until it becomes like corn meal. Add the two eggs (just the insides – not the shell!), milk, and raisins. Mix until a soft dough forms. Put the dough on a well-floured surface and knead it just a couple of times. Roll the dough to a half-inch thick and cut it with a round cookie cutter. Place the scones on a cookie sheet lined with parchment paper and brush with the egg wash. Bake at 400 degrees for 13-15 minutes. Serve your proper British scones with your proper British tea and watch your Mum enjoy!

British vs. American Game

Many words in Britain are very different from American words for the same thing. Below are 50 British words and the American words we use instead. Ask Mum the British word and see if she can figure out what we would call it. Have fun!

	British	American	British	American
	Biscuits	Cookies	Ladybird	Ladybug
	Sweets	Candy	Cellotape	Scotch tape
	Chips	French fries	Candy Floss	Cotton cancy
	Crisps	Potato chips	Torch	Flashlight
	Jam	Jelly	Nappy	Diaper
	Jelly	Gelatin/Jello	Dustbin	Trash can
	Rubbish	Trash	Petrol	Gasoline
	Cooker	Stove	Lift	Elevator
	Loo	Bathroom	Postbox	Mailbox
	Queue	Get in a line	Dummy	Pacifier
	Jacket potato	Baked potato	Trousers	Pants
	Banger	Sausage	Car Park	Parking lot
	Plaster	Band-aid	Full stop	Period
	Bonnet	Hood (car)	Public school	Private school
	Boot	Trunk (car)	State school	Public school
	Purse	Girl's wallet	Dressing gown	Bathrobe
	Handbag	Purse	Trolley	Shopping cart
	Jumper	Sweater	Football	Soccer
	Telly	Television	Parcel	Package
	Iced Lolly	Popsicle	Takeaway	Take-out
	Trainers	Sneakers	Underground	Subway
	Garden	Yard	Braces	Suspenders
	Flat	Apartment	Lorry	Truck
	Starter	Appetizer	Indicator	Turn signal
	Fringe	Bangs	Holiday	Vacation
	Wardrobe	Closet	Mum	Mom

Have tea anytime in England!

The English, as we said, love their tea! Their day is filled with opportunities to drink this wonderful liquid. Below is a list of all the different tea times you will find in British culture. Try to imagine drinking anything as often as the British drink their tea!

- Wake up! It's 6 a.m.! Have a cup of tea!
- Elevensies: It's almost 11 tea and crumpets, please!
- Afternoon tea: 12 noon to 4 p.m. tea, scones, and finger sandwiches! (Use your fingers, don't eat them!)
- Tea time! So when a Brit says "I'm having tea" around 5 p.m., they are NOT having a cup of tea! They are having their evening meal. STOP CONFUSING ME!!! In American, we would call this "supper" or "dinner"!
- High tea! 6 p.m. High tea was originally for the servants who ate at a "high-top" counter after they served the evening meal. They got the leftovers! Now it means a very posh high-scale affair which can be VERY expensive.
- Supper! 8 p.m. Now remember what I said at tea time, because this is not what you think. It is NOT a meal! It is you guessed it more tea! Now you have tea and crumpets or tea and biscuits (cookies in America they're only cookies in Britain if they have chocolate chips in them. Crazy, right?)

If you look closely, you will have tea all day long in England! Enjoy a cuppa with your mum on Mother's Day!

Oh, how civilized!

- #1 Dress appropriately! Pretty dresses and gloves, and don't forget the big hats, please!
- #2 No phones on the tables, please! But you could hide it under your hat! LOL!
- #3 Hold you cup by the handle it is the proper thing to do.
- #4 Put your pinky finger DOWN!!! Or face time-out!
- #5 When you add cream and sugar to your tea, stir your tea up and down, not in circles. We are making tea, not waves!
- #6 NEVER drink your tea, with the teaspoon in your cup! You could get a poke in the eye!
- #7 Never, EVER put your teaspoon in your mouth! NOT very posh!
- #8 The saucer stays on the table and NEVER on your head (like in Alice in Wonderland)! A big no-no!
- #9 Chin-chin! That's a British toast to express good wishes before drinking

When all of this is done correctly, then sit back and enjoy your tea!